New Member Ed Trickey

Our new member, Ed Trickey has an impressive resume and is eager to serve our community through Kiwanis.

Executive Director of Development and External Relations, Citrus Community College District

President and Chief Executive Officer, 11-99 Foundation

Director of Annual Giving and Alumni Relations, Marymount College

Director of Student Services, The Law School, University of Southern California

Assistant to the Vice President for Student Affairs, University of Southern California

Economist, International Financial Markets Division, Federal Reserve Bank of New York

Future President of the Kiwanis Club of Glendora.

Ed is married and has 3 teenagers. They currently reside in Oceanside, CA.

His sponsor is Terry Damron.

Terry Damron donated his $5.00 50/50 winnings to the Ha Ha. The "opportunity drawing" is now worth over $781.00 to the member that draws the joker.

Blacksmithing is an art form. Jennlyn Laughlin is the public information chairperson of the California Blacksmithing Association. She brought some wonderful art work that was created by blacksmiths. Jennlyn talked a bit about how companies commission art work in the form of gates, fences, doors, and many works of iron to adorn their buildings and add to the landscape. There are blacksmithing schools all around Southern California. I have heard that there is one at Rubel Castle. Sounds fun.

Our visitors this week were, Lt. Gov. Cal-Nev-Ha div. 47 Sue Fishman, Lt. Gov. Elect Cal-Nev-Ha div. 47 Jennlyn Laughlin, Sandy Stillings from the Hemet Kiwanis Club, and Dale Rasmussen.

Kasino Royale needs prizes, a food sponsor, crap table sponsor, and horse sponsors. Contact Robert Davis. SELL TICKETS!!

Robert Davis was Mr. "K" this week. He made sure that he greeted everyone! (there is not any club revenue in that)!

Bruce Schutte won $5.00 in the Ha Ha, but was gracious and donated it back to the club when President Diane asked, "Where is your PIN" as she was handing him the 5.
