Meetings Thursdays 7am at the Glendora Country Club

Feb. 5. 2010

This week we had Tom Marino, past Lt. Gov, and Saed Albasha, potential new member as our guests.

On the 12th of February there will be a "Wine Walk" in the Village. Stroll through our downtown area, and sip wine for the low price of $35.00 per person. (A bottle in a brown paper bag is not recommended).

Tony Miller will be passing around a sign up sheet for Snow Day workers to serve the children at Finkbiner park on the 15th.

A special welcome back to Tom Malcolm. Tom has been a member of Kiwanis, past president, and secretary for 7 years. After taking a year away from us, he is back!

Greg Gillham paid $25.00 for an exempt badge. It seems that he and Judy have an anniversary coming up. Judy, did you also purchase an exempt badge? Hal Workman paid $20.00 for the second badge, but did not give any reason to make this bid. (Bidding up the badge price)?

The 19th of March we will meet at President Diane's house for dinner and then go to the "Battle of the Bands" Cost is $13.00 p.p. Sign up sheet will be passed at our next meeting.

Our club is proud to announce our support for Glendora Citizen of the Year candidate Judith Rudd, (Judi)

Elaine Salomone had the honor of being Mrs. "K". Dr Malcolm, Frank McGurty, and Dr. Bruce (go figure) missed her hand and paid the club for their snubbing.

Ken Herman, Ha Ha. The pot was &50.00

Hal Workman missed the joker and the $874.00. His $5.00 winnings went to the Ha Ha.

Hills Dills. Pickles from Thom and Sheryl Hill went to Hal Workman with the high bid of $50.00.

Kasino Royale wrap up. This was a very good event for our club. Robert Davis, chair, reported a net income for us from this event of $11,600.00. There were some challenges associated with this but nothing that we can't overcome in the future. We all owe Robert and his committee, the merchants, and individuals that participated in sponsorships and auction items, a very big thank you! The participation of non members, Lynda Siminske, Sarah Ludwick, and Debbie Damron was essential to helping make this event work!

At or board meeting we approved the application for membership from Dale Rasmussen.
