Tony Miller

We all got to know Tony Miller a little better this week. Born in Temple City, California, he was raised in Covina with his two brothers and 5 sisters. Tony attended Bishop Amat High School. At the age of 15 he started working at a grocery store part time. After getting married to Nedra at age 18, he went to work for Mayflower Markets in Glendora, then spent 3 years as GM of Johns Markets in Los Angeles. They purchased 3 liquor stores, and then Finkbinger Market in the Glendora Village. In the late 80's they sold the liquor stores, and ran Finkbinger Market, including the catering business that had grown from within the market. Around 1988 they sold the market and retired. This lasted about 9 months and Nedra went to work for a veterinarian, and Tony opened up Tony's Pizza, formerly Zios Pizza on Alostia. Two years later Tony went to work for Glendora Dodge, and has progressed with this company to his current position as Fleet Manager. Tony has always had time to serve our community by being on the Planning, and community services commissions. He is a past president of our Kiwanis Club, and is currently serving as Kiwanis International Cal-Nev-Ha division 35 Lt. Governor. Tony and Nedra have 3 sons, lots of grandkids and even a great granddaughter.

Our visitors this week were, Barbara Latasa, Sarah Ludwick, Brenda Fischer, Victor Santacruz, and Vince Mastrosimone.

Art Ludwick and Bill Siminske each paid $10.00 fines for letting their wives get older.

Carlo found out that talking while our president is speaking can be expensive. He donated $10.00 to our club.

President Diane made the purchase of the century. Her bid of $25.00 was high for a fine wine donated by Art.

Reservations for the Cal-Nev-Ha District Governor visit need to be made now. $37.00 per person, paid to Judi Rudd.

Ha Ha, Maria Gibson missed out on $61.00 by not being at our meeting.

Dan Derby donated his 50/50 winnings of $5.00 to the Ha Ha. The pot is now $1078.00.

APU Golf Classic will be April 12th at the Glendora Country Club. $165.00 includes Golf food and beverage. Register online at www.cougarfootballfamily.com.
