Meetings Thursdays 7am at the Glendora Country Club

June 4, 2010

Our guest this week was Sarah Ludwick.

Robert Davis encouraged us all to sign up for Relay for Life. We need walkers and members to mind our booth at this 24 hour event. Raffle tickets are now available for the 32 inch television. 1-$1.00, 7-$5.00, 15-$10.00, 35-$20.00. The winning number will be drawn at Relay For Life.

There will be a Kasino Night planning meeting on June 30th at 4pm. in the conference room at Robert Davis office.

We will have a Flashback planning meeting at the Chamber office on the 17th. of June at 9am.

Gene Murabito is getting members signed up to work at our "Dog House" through the concerts in the park series. This is a fun event and should be shared by all members.

Hal Workman paid a $20.00 fine for his business winning a Women In Business award! It seems that Cece has been promoted. Congratulations to you both.

Tom Malcolm and Art Ludwick paid $100.00 and $102.00 for this months exempt badges. They did not elaborate on their reasons.

The first of each month we hold our business meetings for the Project fund and our Club. Diane Norman has expressed her thoughts about this meeting a few times.

From a newsletter look at these meetings all I can say is there is never enough to make a full story about. We discussed our income and outgo, Robert Davis made his obligatory CPA comments, and Judi Rudd defended her position and blamed the software.

John Lundstrom read his report from last months Project Fund Meeting, I sneezed and missed the whole thing.

Our club treasury is in good shape and President Diane announced that we will add a $500.00 donation to Eye Das that had been put on hold. Computers are great, one can just change the font size and make a nothing story fill a complete column.

Mr. "K" this week was Robert Davis. He was missed by our Mayor Ken, Frank McGurty and Mr. Ludwick. It is spontaneous donations like these that make funding for Eye Das and other worthwhile causes possible.

Greg Gillham donated $3.00 from his $13.00 winnings back into the Ha Ha. (I think I saw Judy put the $10.00 in her purse)

Dan Derby put his $6.00 windfall from the 50/50 in the Ha Ha. The pot is growing. $1,531.00 is available for the member that draws the joker!
